

Lyndon

Area

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

From the President	1
Your Invitation	2

Lyndon Area Chamber of Commerce

December 2008

Heading into the holidays...

DECEMBER MEETING

FRIDAY

12/12 5:00 PM

Cobleigh Library

AGENDA

- The legal stuff
- Social time
- Food & drink
- More social time

More details on the reverse...

I had never been a complete believer in the “shop locally” maxim. I will do that whenever possible, but not always.

WHY? There are things you just can’t get around here. When necessary, I have travelled far and wide for something not available in the Kingdom. I have gone online and the next day or the day after, UPS has delivered something I couldn’t find here. I have always hoped that the demands of the marketplace would encourage new entrepreneurs to come in and fill that need (wouldn’t you like a few more options for clothing??) but I always left the options open while I waited for new business activity.

That’s all changed. The state of the economy has changed my shopping and spending habits for now. I will do everything I can this holiday season to support local merchants, our friends and neighbors whose livelihood is at risk during these uncertain times. I STRONGLY encourage you to do the same. The rules have changed.

I will also do MORE to support those whose needs are especially dire. LOCAL food shelves need our help. NOW. Neighbors who are choosing between food and fuel need our help. NOW. Later will be... too late.

Please: Do what you can, when you can, for everybody you can do it for. It’s the least we can do.

Tidings of comfort and joy.

Steve Nichols

Lyndon

Area

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

PO Box 886
Lyndonville, VT 05851
802-626-9696
www.lyndonvermont.com

Lyndon Area Chamber of Commerce
December Meeting and Holiday Social

Friday, December 12, 2008

5 pm to 7 pm

Cobleigh Public Library
Depot Street, Lyndonville

Meet our newly elected or re-elected legislators and discuss issues of importance to businesses as we head into the new legislative session.

Light hors d'oeuvres and libations will be served.

See You There!

